

Grief

Written by

Elena Morales Jiménez

1. INT. LIVING ROOM - DAY. CLOUDY

ANNE (8) is in a small living room watching cartoons on the TV. The lights of the house are turned off and there is a dim gray light coming through the window. Her dad, DAVID (40), speaks emotionless to her from the kitchen.

DAD (O.S.)
Breakfast is finally ready, Anne.

Anne stares still at the TV screen emotionless. Her father slowly enters in the living room.

DAVID
Anne, come on, please...

His eye bags are dark, his eyes are red and puff. He turns off the TV. Anne does not react.

DAVID (CONT'D)
Anne it's already 8 and you will be late if you don't eat your breakfast now.

Anne does not respond. David grows angry.

DAVID (CONT'D)
Anne! Are you deaf or what?

Silence.

DAVID (CONT'D)
That's it! No TV for a week.

David is about to turn off the TV when he hears the voice of a reporter in the news.

TV REPORTER
"Anne Williams, an 8 year old girl goes missing..."

The voice of the reporter fades out. David's stares at the TV emotionless.

2. EXT. PARK - SUNNY. FLASHBACK.

David is watching Anne play with other kids. A friendly fat man, WILLIAM (47), approaches him smiling.

WILLIAM
It's hard to be a single dad, huh?

3. INT. LIVING ROOM - DAY. CLOUDY

Anne is no longer in the living room. David tidies up the toys in the floor. A creepy melody plays.